Centre Square is the building with the clothespin statue in front of it, right next to City Hall. The building takes up the entire half-block bordered by 15th (east) and 16th (west), between Market (north) and Ranstead (south).

Coming to Center City Philadelphia via I676, get off at the Broad St/15th St exit. Head south on 15th St., and stay on 15th St past Vine, Race, Cherry, Arch, JFK Boulevard and Market. You will see City Hall on your left and the clothespin statue on your right. Passing the clothespin on your right, take a right on Ranstead Street (it is essentially an alley on the south side of the building) and go through to the stop sign on 16th. Take a very sharp right (180°) and down the ramp, and you can park in the garage under our building.

We are in the east tower, 12th Floor. You currently have to go through security on the south side of the lobby and show a picture ID in order to get a building pass to go to the west tower. If you send us the names of the people to expect, we can let building security know ahead of time to shorten the process a bit.
